We encourage you to visit our website at www.rushmorelm.com and create an account after receiving this letter.

You are hereby notified that the servicing of your mortgage loan, that is, the right to collect payments from you, has been assigned, sold or transferred from Specialized Loan Servicing to Rushmore Loan Management Services LLC (Rushmore), effective 03/03/2020. The transfer of the servicing of your mortgage does not affect any term or condition of the mortgage instruments, other than terms directly related to the servicing of your loan.

Except in limited circumstances, the law requires that your previous servicer send you this notice at least 15 days before the effective date of transfer. As your new servicer, we must also send you this notice no later than 15 days after this effective date or at closing.

This is a toll free number.

Click on the upper banner titled ACCOUNT LOGIN and you can make a payment or sign-up for Auto Draft Payments (ACH). Rushmore highly recommends this option, as it helps to prevent you from being late on any of your very important mortgage payments. You may also use Western Union Quick Collect (Code City: Rushmore Code State: CA). Western Union may charge a fee for this service.

The date that your present servicer Specialized Loan Servicing will stop accepting your payments is 03/02/2020. The date that Rushmore will begin accepting payments from you is 03/03/2020. Send all payments due on or after that due date to your new servicer. A billing statement from Rushmore will be mailed to you within 15 to 30 days.

If you are currently making your mortgage payment through a third-party entity (e.g., your on-line banking, government allotment, biweekly, or bill service), please take the necessary steps to advise them of your new loan number and change the payee to your new servicer. In the event of a payment change, it is your responsibility to notify the third-party of the new payment amount and new address to send the payments.

Rushmore Loan Management Services LLC requests that you make every effort to remit your monthly payments on the contractual due date shown on the note and your payment coupon.

Important note: If you entered into an approved loss mitigation plan with your previous loan servicer, or if you had a loss mitigation application in process with your previous servicer, please call Rushmore immediately, toll-free, at 888-504-7300, to confirm that the loss mitigation plan information, or application and documentation, were properly transferred to Rushmore.

You should also be aware of the following information, which is referred to in more detail in Section 6 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 USC §2605).

During the 60-day period following the effective date of transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your previous servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new servicer as late, and a late charge fee may not be assessed.

A Business Day is a day on which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that Section. You should seek legal advice if you believe your rights have been violated.

Important note about insurance: If you have mortgage life or disability insurance or any other type of optional insurance, the transfer of servicing rights may affect your insurance in the following way:

Rushmore does not collect and remit any type of optional insurance to your insurance company. Any premiums for any such optional policy that was being collected and remitted by your previous servicer will be discontinued by Rushmore as of the effective date of the transfer of servicing. If you wish to retain such optional insurance, you should contact your optional product service provider about your ability to continue such insurance and how to make premium payments.

Should you have any questions, please contact our Customer Care Department at toll-free 888-504-6700, Monday through Thursday, 6 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Pacific.

Legal Rights and Protections Under the SCRA

Servicemembers on “active duty” or “active service,” or a spouse or dependent of such a servicemember may be entitled to certain legal protections and debt relief pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC §§ 3901-4043) (SCRA).

Who May Be Entitled to Legal Protections Under the SCRA?

- Regular members of the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard).
- Reserve and National Guard personnel who have been activated and are on Federal active duty
- National Guard personnel under a call or order to active duty for more than 30 consecutive days under section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds
- Active service members of the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.
- Certain United States citizens serving with the armed forces of a nation with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of a war or military action.

What Legal Protections Are Servicemembers Entitled To Under the SCRA?

- The SCRA states that a debt incurred by a servicemember, or servicemember and spouse jointly, prior to entering military service shall not bear interest at a rate above 6 % during the period of military service and one year thereafter, in the case of an obligation or liability consisting of a mortgage, trust deed, or other security in the nature of a mortgage, or during the period of military service in the case of any other obligation or liability.
- The SCRA states that in a legal action to enforce a debt against real estate that is filed during, or within one year after the servicemember’s military service, a court may stop the proceedings for a period of time, or adjust the debt. In addition, the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of real estate shall not be valid if it occurs during, or within one year after the servicemember’s military service unless the creditor has obtained a valid court order approving the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of the real estate.
- The SCRA contains many other protections besides those applicable to home loans.

How Does A Servicemember or Dependent Request Relief Under the SCRA?

- In order to request relief under the SCRA from loans with interest rates above 6% a servicemember or spouse must provide a written request to the lender, together with a copy of the servicemember’s military orders.
*Rushmore Loan Management Services LLC / 15480 Laguna Canyon Road, Suite 100, Irvine CA 92618
Telephone: (888) 504-6700 / Fax (949) 453-9397*
- There is no requirement under the SCRA, however, for a servicemember to provide a written notice or a copy of a servicemember’s military orders to the lender in connection with a foreclosure or other debt enforcement action against real estate. Under these circumstances, lenders should inquire about the military status of a person by searching the Department of Defense’s Defense Manpower Data Center’s website, contacting the servicemember, and examining their files for indicia of military service. Although there is no requirement for servicemembers to alert the lender of their military status in these situations, it still is a good idea for the servicemember to do so.

How Does a Servicemember or Dependent Obtain Information About the SCRA?

- Servicemembers and dependents with questions about the SCRA should contact their unit’s Judge Advocate, or their installation’s Legal Assistance Officer. A military legal assistance office locator for all branches of the Armed Forces is available at <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil/content/locator.php>
- “Military OneSource” is the U. S. Department of Defense’s information resource. If you are listed as entitled to legal protections under the SCRA (see above), please go to www.militaryonesource.com/legal or call 1-800-342-9647 (toll free from the United States) to find out more information. Dialing instructions for areas outside the United States are provided on the website.
